

ANNA WILSON

Career Highlights

FREQUENT FLYERS

- Her songs appear on over 7 million albums sold as certified by the RIAA.
- She has penned over 70 songs for top artists like Reba McEntire, Billy Ray Cyrus, Lady Antebellum, Lee Ann Womack and more.

FUN FACTS

- Wilson penned the International theme song for Habitat for Humanity.
- Served on the Board of the Nashville Songwriters Association International (NSAI) and lobbied in Washington DC to help pass the Music Modernization Act of 2018.

AWARDS & HONORS

- Received an ASCAP songwriter award for co-writing one of the most performed country songs of 2009, All I Ever Wanted, (Chuck Wicks/RCA).
- Awarded an RIAA Five Million Certification Award for her Lady Antebellum co-write, “If I Knew Then,” that appears on the band’s mega-hit release, Need You Now.
- Awarded an RIAA GOLD Award for her Chris Cagle co-write, “Look at What I’ve Done.”
- Her Countrypolitan Duets and Yule Swing! albums debuted on the Jazz Week and CMJ Jazz Radio charts in the top 25.

SOLO ARTIST - ALBUM DISCOGRAPHY

JAZZBIRD/SONGBIRD – (Transfer Records, 2014)

- Debuted at #9 on the iTunes Jazz Chart.
- The album's single, Polaroid, inspired and was the end title to a Hallmark Feeln Channel Short Film that debuted at the LA Shorts Fest (September, 2015).

COUNTRYPOLITAN DUETS – Anna Wilson & Friends – (Transfer Records, 2011)

- Debuted at #7 on the U.S. on the Billboard Jazz Chart and #5 on the Canadian Jazz Chart.
- The album's single, "You Don't Know Me", a duet with "American Idol's" Matt Giraud, debuted at #1 on iTunes Jazz Chart.

TIME CHANGES EVERYTHING - (Transfer Records, 2009)

Features the Habitat for Humanity International inspired single "A House, A Home"

that appears in the charity's public service announcements on television and radio. Since the campaign's introduction, the spots have received over $5 million in free public service advertising worldwide. To view the PSAs: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GQoJEq98jv8>

YULE SWING! - (Transfer Records, 2008)

- Wilson's holiday album earned positioning on three of Billboard's jazz charts alongside Tony Bennett, Diana Krall, Harry Connick, Jr., and others.
- o #12 on the Overall Jazz Chart
- o #30 on the Heat-Seeker Chart
- o a slot on the Standard Jazz Chart

THE LONG WAY - (Curb Records, 2003)

- Wilson's debut record.
- Featured the single "The Bus Ride" which was featured in the motion picture "A View from The Top".

"...She's being called the new Norah Jones..." – Wendy Gellar, Yahoo Music

"She 's got a voice like crème d cacao and an inner metronome that swings wildly from age to age."
Christopher Loudon, Jazz Times

LIVE PERFORMANCE & PRODUCTION

- Made her Grand Ole Opry debut in November, 2010 and has performed several times since.
- Co- Executive Produced an album honoring Billy Joel's career as a songwriter called "A Nashville State of Mind".
- Has performed and recorded with three members in the Country Music Hall of Fame...Ray Price, Connie Smith and Kenny Rogers.
- She has played concert billings with Josh Groban, Esperanza Spaulding, Keith Urban, Connie Smith, Al Jarreau, Boz Skaggs, Poncho Sanchez, Larry Carlton, Mary Chapin-Carpenter, Shawn Colvin and Patti Griffin.