C Lazy U Ranch

C Lazy U Ranch is known for being one of Colorado's most iconic properties with an unmatched legacy for celebrating and cherishing the American West. The ranch is an original homesteaded property dating back to the early 1900s and is proud to be celebrating its 100th anniversary in 2019. The ranch is situated in a secluded location but offers the convenience of only being two hours from Denver.

C Lazy U embraces genuine downhome hospitality combined with a sophisticated service mentality. It is the foundation for why so many people come back year after year. The ranch prides itself on delivering an outstanding experience that is far from the cookie-cutter experiences you more commonly see at its five-star competitors, making it an ideal destination for one of a kind retreats or team-building adventures.

There is truly something for everyone, and the property features a collection of luxury cabin accommodations, fine dining, a full-service "Lazy You" spa, and 8,500 acres of adventure. The ranch can also host a wide array of meetings and events on property.
